

Mr. IRVING begs to call attention to the following improvements which have been made in the Theatre:—

STALLS.—The Stall space has been widened so as to allow of greater room between the rows of seats. Three new doors of exit have been added.

DRESS CIRCLE.—The rake of the seats has been raised, and the space between the seats enlarged.

UPPER CIRCLE—The rake of the seats has been raised, and the space between the seats enlarged. New means of ventilation have been added.

AMPHITHEATRE.—The Amphitheatre has been enlarged and improved.

PIT.—The Pit remains as heretofore, with the exception that the spaces between the rows of seats have been enlarged. New ventilation has been added, and a new Refreshment Room on the level of the floor provided.

GALLERY.—The Gallery remains as heretofore. The sighting power has been improved, and a new and more commodious Refreshment Room added.

Two new handrails have been added in the Grand Staircase, and the staircases leading to the Stalls have been widened and improved.

The Theatre has been entirely re-decorated by Messrs. CAMPBELL, SMITH and CAMPBELL, under the direction of Mr. C. J. PHIPPS, F.S.A.

The alterations effected have improved the sighting power of the audience in every part of the Theatre.

The Bill of the Play is in every part of the House supplied without charge.

No Fees of any kind are permitted, and Mr. IRVING trusts that in his endeavour to carry out this arrangement, he may rely on the co-operation of the Public, who are requested, should there be any cause of complaint, or especial satisfaction, to refer at once to the Acting Manager.
